THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

“The things we ourselves have experienced of the blessings of God through His gracious promises we may hang in memory's halls, and whether rich or poor, learned or illiterate, we may look and may consider these tokens of God's love. Every token of God's care and goodness and mercy should be hung as imperishable mementos in memory's halls. God would have His love, His promises, written upon tablets of the mind. Guard the precious revealings of God that not a letter shall become obliterated or dimmed.” Our High Calling, 135.
